

	Fall 2026 or Spring 2027	Winter 2027	Summer 2027
Item	Cost in USD			Description
Mandatory Tuition and Fees
Tuition	$11,025 (15 credits)	$2,205 (3 credits)	$4,410 (6 credits)	- Tuition is based on an international student flat rate of $735 per credit hour (details). - Full-time enrollment is required for Egyptian residency. These rates represent the maximum full-time course load each term for an undergraduate student. Graduate students must take 9 credits / semester to be considered full-time. - AUC tuition is waived for tuition-exchange students.
Student Activities	$68	$18	$18	AUC offers numerous activities including a state-of-the-art sports center and Center for Student Well-Being. These services will not require additional payment for use.
AUC Health Insurance	$190	$39	$39	AUC automatically enrolls international students (who are not permanent residents of Egypt) in a comprehensive accident and sickness insurance plan each term (details).
Other Academic Fees (Not Included in Tuition Exchange)
Lab Fees	$55	$55	$55	This amount is charged per laboratory course .
Computer Science Fees	$55	$55	$55	This amount is charged per computer science course .
Private Music Course	$150 (avg)	$150 (avg)	$150 (avg)	- Private Instruction ($163) - Advanced Private Instruction ($195) - Chamber Music Ensembles ($97)
Optional AUC Fees
AUC Housing	$1,000	$250	$430	Total rate for a full term in a standard double room in the on-campus residences. For all room types and rates, click here .
AUC Bus Pass	$276	$70	$136	Average cost of an AUC bus subscription to commute to campus (rates depend on the route). Most students alternatively pay per bus ride (~$3 USD) or use ride-hailing apps.
Survival Arabic	$280	Not offered	Not offered	5-day, 20-hour intensive non-credit course in Egyptian Colloquial (spoken) Arabic that begins during semester orientation. Click here for details.
Estimated (Approximate) Out-of-Pocket Expenses
Books and Supplies	$600	$150	$300	AUC courses may or may not use textbooks. This amount represents the average cost of books and supplies at an American private, non-profit institution.
Airfare	$1,800	$1,800	$1,800	This amount is subject to change but represents an average roundtrip economy direct flight from New York City to Cairo per AUC's Travel Office.
Visas	$175	$30	$30	- Tourist visa required to enter Egypt: $30 USD (all terms) - Processing fee for Egyptian residency (fall/spring): equivalent of 7,100 EGP (~$140) - For details about visas, click here.
Meals	$2,150	$500	$1,000	AUC does not offer a meal plan but on campus there are several dining outlets and a convenience store. Click here for details. These amounts represent ~2 meals/day at inexpensive restaurants and 1 meal/day at a mid-range restaurant for the term duration.
Personal Expenses	$1,500	$700	$1,000	To be determined by the individual student but may include shopping, a local phone plan, and daily transportation. These amounts are based on exit survey results from international students and cost of living estimates in Cairo.
Domestic Travel	$1,500	$375	$750	To be determined by the individual student, but may include domestic flights, trains, and ground transportation to cities outside of Cairo.
Non-AUC Housing	$2,000	$500	$1,000	Average monthly rent in a non-AUC affiliated apartment that students find independently. AUC program housing is only available on the main campus in New Cairo; students enrolled in the semester-long ALIN program (hosted on the downtown campus) generally prefer this option.